

Emtro Gospel/LKS releases New PROJECT

Stirring, Energetic, and Electrifying are just a few words to describe the Emtro Gospel debut release of HE WORKED IT OUT from TERRI McCONNELL. This singer/songwriter raises the rafters in this collection of songs that offer toe tapping praise and heart-felt worship in a traditional gospel music setting. HE WORKED IT OUT is produced by one of the industries best, Sanchez Harley, and it's a testament to Terri's love for God. From the title track He Worked It Out to the hot radio single and gospel standard Walk With Me, featuring the legendary Albertina Walker (Queen of Gospel), Terri McConnell's ministry will be heard, felt and appreciated by consumers nationwide as this project is sure to bring inspiration, encouragement, and renewed strength to many. This project is already stirring up the radio airways.

On March 14th, 2006 her debut release was released in stores across the country. FOR FANS OF: Vickie Winans, Dottie Peoples, Helen Baylor and Shirley Caesar, you are sure to become of fan of Terri McConnell.

In the 2006 April issue of the Ebony Magazine, her project "He Worked It Out" was featured in the new and hottest in Black music. From praise and worship to songs that is sure to get the church and choir up and praising God with such tracks as "He Worked It Out", to the deacon that loves the sound of Quartet, this project is sure to cover it all. Patrick Lundy and The Ministers of Music helps usher in the presents of the Lord throughout the eleven tracks.

Emtro Gospel is proud to have Terri join with the Emtro family.

For bookings Contact:

Terri McConnell Ministries

7030-C South Lewis Suite 553 Tulsa, Okla. 74136

918-759-2114

email Terri: Temmco@aol.com

www.TerriMcConnell.com